Robbo's keen to keep Dele

DONS

Karl Robinson has rebuffed rumours linking teenage sensation Dele Alli away from stadium:mk by claiming 'he's not for sale.'

The 17-year-old has made just four stars for MK Dons but a whole host of Premier League scouts have been sniffing around after hearing of his excellent pre-season performances.

And after being handed consecutive starts by Robinson this season against Shrewsbury and Northampton Town, his stock is rising.

But while the country's biggest clubs begin to circle, Robinson is determined to keep hold of his man.

"I don't think he's for sale," said Robinson after the 2-1 victory over Northampton. "It will take millions to get him, but I don't want to sell him and the chairman doesn't want to sell him.

"There will be a day where we have to though, but he's destined for great, great things.

"But very good players have to go along a certain path. He's a wonderful talent.

"I'm very lucky to have so many young players, and I believe in them."

And his performance at Sixfields showed why he is attracting so much interest.

Alli could have had two goals to his name, while his pace and movement caused no end of problems for the Northampton defence.

Robinson said: "I thought Dele Alli was scary. At 17-years-old to do that..."

"Sam Baldock wasn't conducting himself like that at his age.

"I love working with him. He's got a tremendous future and I'm blessed to be part of the early stages of his career."

PREMIER ATTRACTION: Dele Alli has sparked interest from clubs up and down the country.

JR's delighted to be county's golf champion

GOLF

JR Ellis just cannot stop winning at the moment as he added the County Championship to his mantle piece.

The 11-year-beat the field to lift the Dunstable Open last week and added the County title last Wednesday.

Ellis sealed the championship with a six stroke victory over his nearest rival at the tournament, held at Aspley Guise and Woburn Sands Golf Club.

He said: "I really feel like I am peaking early in the season and loving every moment of it.

"To be crowned boys county champ is an amazing feeling.

"The trophy is great and I cannot wait to see my name engraved on it.

"I'm looking forward to every other tournament lined up. I feel ready for anything".
